This rare Cheddar has been carefully graded from a young age and matured for at least 18 months. The result is a classic Cheddar bursting with evocative flavours.

Mature, clothbound Farmhouse Cheddar made the old fashioned way is hard to find, and demand outstrips supply. This rare Cheddar has been carefully graded from a young age and matured for 18 - 24 months. The result is a classic Cheddar bursting with evocative flavours, with a firm, open and moist texture, an aging earthy aroma, and a lingering tang.

The philosophy behind the 'Selected by Will Studd' label is a range of cheese with the finest provenance, texture, aroma, and flavour. Will Studd is an international cheese expert who has spent his life travelling, filming and writing extensively about cheese around the world.
